INTRODUCTION

I still remember it as if it only happened yesterday.

I was standing in line to order at a restaurant near my house and noticed that everybody seemed a little disoriented and troubled. “Why,” I wondered. The air was so heavy with disbelief, it felt as though you could cut through it with a knife.

In an instant, I saw why!

The front page of the newspaper sitting on a counter revealed a wrecked car and headlines about the “Death of a Princess”. I had been traveling for a couple of days and hadn’t heard.

As I sat down to eat, it hit me what the newspaper meant. I quickly bought the paper and read the story anticipating a punch line. The punch line never came. It was for real. I began to experience some of the same heaviness.

I remember sitting there and thinking about this dominant yet dainty figure that had given the world the belief again in fairy tales. Gone! Gone and way to soon for the world!

A light had gone out, and I felt what everyone else was feeling, the shadows deepening. That’s what happens when lights go out in the world. The world becomes a darker place.

I sat down and wrote a song I call, “Lights”. I’ll share the lyrics of this song in a moment. Before I do, I want to have a word with you about the purpose behind this booklet.

THE COFFEE SHOP OF MAKE-BELIEVE

You ever wish you could sit down with someone you admire for the way they enrich the lives of others? You ever see people of influence and wish you had the chance to learn about life from their perspective? Have you ever known anyone without whom the world would be a darker place?

That's what this e-book is about!

It takes us into the world of cyberspace technology, where at the click of a mouse we can all pull up a chair, grab a cup of coffee, and get to know several guests of an imaginary coffee shop that I call, The Coffee Shop of Make-Believe.

These guests are among the greatest lights currently shining in the world, and our presence together in "The Coffee Shop" becomes, "Sugar For My Coffee".

I like to close my writings with this segment. I've picked out some great ones for you in this e-book. I hope the sugar is sweet for you as you journey through this All-Star collection from our series, "Sugar For My Coffee" in "The Coffee Shop of Make-Believe".

Are all these "lights" perfect? Not hardly. That book will never be written. This book is written to help us connect with those who do at least try to use their platform as a function of good will to enrich others. I may not be happy with everything about some of these "lights," but I sure am thankful for the ways they do try to illuminate some of the darkness in the world.

Lights

“Every now and then, they grace the land,
And holding out their arms, they give the world a hand.
Illuminating darkness with the presence of their light
And causing day to spring forth where once was only night.

Tonight a light's gone out across the land,
And broken empty lives reach out for a hand.
So, as we bow our knees and turn our hearts up to the sky,
The world sure could use, the world sure could use, the world
sure could use another Princess Di'.

The worlds a brighter place as their light shines,
Cause there's so many “I don't cares” and “neverminds”.
When will we learn to appreciate the light that their lives give,
And follow in their footsteps helping others better live?

Tonight a light's gone out across the land,
And broken empty lives reach out for a hand.
So, as we bow our knees and turn our hearts up to the sky,
The world sure could use, the world sure could use, the world
sure could use another Princess Di'.

It's not in living up in a Palace that we reign in someone's heart.
We need more who shine their light, striving each to do their part.

Tonight a light's gone out across the land,
And broken empty lives reach out for a hand.
So, as we bow our knees and turn our hearts up to the sky,
The world sure could use, the world sure could use, the world
sure could use another Princess Di'.

The world sure could use, the world sure could use, the world
sure could use a few more Princess Di's.”

Sugar For My Coffee

Welcome to the segment I like to call, Sugar For My Coffee!

Here we discover the individuals with whom this author would be most honored to sit across from and enjoy a coffee break. I close all my writings with this entrance into The Coffee Shop of Make-Believe to introduce my readers to another Success Mentor for life empowerment. That person's presence at the table would be Sugar For My Coffee!

He said, "We spend our day either preparing or repairing. Preparing allows us to focus on today, while repairing forces us to clean up yesterday. Preparing invests for the future, repairing pays down past debts. Preparing increases efficiency, but repairing consumes precious time.....Cherish each day to grow and develop, and avoid making mistakes which will return to haunt you. Remember: the secret of your success is determined by your daily agenda."

Today' s coffee break guest: John Maxwell

John Maxwell

I remember how blown away I was after I read, "The 21 Irrefutable Laws Of Leadership." This book by John Maxwell so impressed me I created overviews of each of the 21 Irrefutable Laws and saved them on my computer for easy accessibility.

I am so thrilled to have John Maxwell as my guest in this segment of "Sugar For My Coffee."

John Maxwell is a best selling author. Some of his works are:

- The 21 Irrefutable Laws of Leadership
- The 21 Indispensable Qualities of a Leader
- Failing Forward

If I had to choose one person to mentor me about life and leadership, it would be John Maxwell. In a world that confuses popularity with influence, John exemplifies how influence beats popularity every time.

His material is some of the most recommended resources on life enrichment and leadership available today. A wealth of insight to assist you in your journey of success is available to you right now, at the tips of your fingers. It is indeed my pleasure to have John Maxwell as a guest in "The Coffee Shop of Make-Believe".

Those of you who are familiar with this segment of my work know that you can join us for this coffee break any time you wish. You only have to grab a cup of coffee, pull up a seat at the table and get to know our guest. You can do that now by visiting the following Website on the INTERNET.

He said, "Did you know ... that you as a woman, by virtue of your femininity, have in your hands the delicious power to make a man fall in love with you, influence a man to your way of thinking, bring him to his knees, make him want to spend his life with you -- and want to fulfill your every desire?"

We will meet our guest in a moment.

Before we do, I need to ask some questions.

Ladies, you ever catch yourself wondering how much you really know about the man in your life?

You ever find yourself wishing you knew what to do to become the woman that men love and will never leave?

Ladies, you will take on so much more personal value in the eyes of your man when you find out the steps to becoming the kind of woman that men adore. This is just one of the many important messages taught by today' s guest of The Coffee Shop of Make-Believe.

Today' s coffee break guest: Bob Grant, L.P.C.

Bob Grant has been a Licensed Professional Counselor, therapist, and relationship coach for 16 years. He is called The Relationship Doctor because he has saved dozens of relationships/marriages from disaster, dissolution -- and just plain boredom. People all around the world have discovered his prescription for finding love, keeping passion alive, and reigniting relationships that have lost their spark.

Those of you who are familiar with this segment of my work know that you can join us for this coffee break any time you wish. You only have to grab a cup of coffee, pull up a seat at the table and get to know our guest. You can get to know Bob Grant by visiting the following Website on the INTERNET.

Today's coffee break guest: Ken Evoy

Ken Evoy

Where does one begin with Ken Evoy? Ken is a Canadian physician who formerly taught and practiced emergency medicine at McGill University in Montreal, Canada. He still enjoys practicing medicine, but now as a hobby that he loves.

Before becoming as he likes to call it, "web-sessed", Ken and his wife designed toys and games. They sold 23 of their inventions to large companies around the world, generating millions of dollars in royalty revenues along the way.

After these successes, Ken developed a passion for the Internet. He launched a SYSTEM that today is one of the most successful ventures anyone desiring to follow their dreams can embrace. How about I let Ken tell you in his own words.

“First, I could see immediately that I could control the result. I understood that if I had a great product and then designed a site that would sell effectively and then attract targeted traffic, the project would succeed. I knew that I had a great piece of software (I loved and used it regularly, and made money with it). But there were still two big questions...

- Could I design a site that would sell this near-impossible-to-sell-project?
- Could I attract customers?

I was not sure about the answers to these two questions at that time, ‘way back’ in late ’96. But I am now... Since our launch in November 1997, I have proven that the answers to those two questions are resounding YESs.” That “challenge” now helps people from all walks of life live their passions, become INFOpreneurs with their hobbies, and grow their sphere of influence all around the world. This is the REAL DEAL!

Those of you who are familiar with this segment of my work know that you can join us for this cup of coffee any time you wish. Today's coffee break guest: Jim Rohn

Jim Rohn

America's foremost business philosopher! Talking about insight! Anyone who is blessed to sit under this man's teachings about life WILL NOT remain the same. There isn't anyone I would want my children learning from more than Jim Rohn (and that is the greatest compliment I can give any man).

His wisdom creates paradigm shifts in people's thinking.

I challenge anyone wishing to become more to find out everything they can about this man and then get ready to GROOOOOOOW.

Jim Rohn is the author of over 17 different books, audio and video programs and his Seminars span over 39 years. His insight is invaluable.

The one thing above all else that you will learn from Jim Rohn is the importance of becoming more in life so you can have more in life.

Some of Jim Rohn's works include:

- Cultivating an Unshakable Character
- The Power of Ambition
- The Art of Exceptional Living
- Take Charge of Your Life

He said: "One of the least romantic days of the year is Valentine' s Day. Yes, you heard me correctly. The majority of men act like robots, purchasing flowers and chocolates for their sweethearts because that is what everyone else is doing. Many people celebrate the day out of obligation rather than celebration."

Our coffee break guest for today: Michael Webb

Michael has been called, "The World' s Most Romantic Man", "America' s Romance Expert" and "Mr. Romance". If you have ever been blessed to read one of Michael' s books or e-books, you know they are power-packed with some of the best relationship building ideas and resources you can find.

Here is what the media is saying about Michael.

* "Turn to Michael Webb when you want to become the man of every woman' s fantasy". Chicago Daily Herald

* "He' s discovered the secrets of keeping passion alive. They go beyond the ordinary shtick of sending flowers or buying candy." Houston Chronicle

* "He helps men bring back the sizzle in their relationships."
Fort Wayne Journal Gazette

Some works by Michael Webb are:

- 1000 Questions For Couples
- 300 Creative Dates
- The Romantic' s Guide to Popping the Question

Michael has appeared on over 500 radio and television shows including NBC News, The Other Half and Oprah. His material is some of the most recommended resources on relationships available today and his website receives millions of visitors each year.

He said, "Get off the treadmill and make progress in your life. Discover how to live the life you' ve always dreamed of".

We will meet our guest in a moment, but first I' d like for us to look at the word "dreamed". For many of you reading this, your dreams about life have been replaced with dread. Instead of living the life you' ve dreamed about, you have been living the life you' ve dreaded. With this understanding, our guest this month issues the above challenge to us all.

Today' s coffee break guest Mr. Chris Widener

Chris is the President of Made For Success and Extraordinary Leaders. These two companies are helping individuals and organizations to achieve their dreams by succeeding in all areas of life. Chris Widener is:

- A Family Man: Chris is married with four children and attributes his many successes to his personal life.

- A Featured Man: He has been the featured speaker at major events and has shared the platform with many influential people including U. S. Presidential candidates, best selling authors, professional athletes and nationally known television news anchors.
- A Fresh Perspective Man: One of the greatest things I have learned about success in life came from Chris Widener. He said that success is defined as, "The balanced achievement in all areas, not the overachievement in one area."

His perspective is about achieving success in all areas of life, not just business. This is why I like Chris Widener so much. His message is not just about leadership, it' s about life.

Some works by Chris Widener are as follows:

He said, "Be totally honest with yourself. Your time on earth is limited. Isn't it time you made the most of it?"

Our guest in the Coffee Shop this issue reflected on the dash seen on tombstones in a cemetery and was faced with this sobering and life-changing thought.

He said, "Are you living the dash or are you dashing to live.... It is startling to realize that a person's whole life can be summed up in a little dash connecting two numbers.... we don't get to decide on the two numbers, but we do get to decide on the dash."

He sat down and wrote the book, "One Month To Live - Thirty Days to a No Regrets Life" It became a thirty day challenge inspiring people all around the world to Live Passionately. Love Completely. Learn Humbly. Leave Boldly.

Our guest today in the Coffee Shop: Kerry & Chris Shook

Kerry & Chris Shook founded Fellowship of the Woodlands in 1993 with eight people. Since then, the church has grown to over 15,000 people in attendance each weekend, becoming one of the largest and most influential churches in America. Kerry & Chris:

- Have been married for nearly 25-years and have four children
- Their weekly television program is broadcast to millions of viewers. It can be seen in all 50 states and over 200 countries worldwide.

I may never be privileged enough to sit personally with Kerry and Chris Shook for coffee. At least in The Coffee Shop of Make Believe we get to. Right?

Other Works by Stanley J. Leffew:

The desire for finding love and lasting relationships is an on-going passion for most people in our society. However, it is still a challenge for many, and building love to last a lifetime is even a greater challenge.

This desire for finding love relationships that have depth and meaning gave birth to this e-book titled,

“How to Be Wanted for a Lifetime of Nights and Not Just a Night of a Lifetime”

This e-book about finding love that will last has been a resource tool since its inception to help navigate a path through all the relationship confusion that abounds today. After all, finding love and relationships that last a lifetime is a noble pursuit. When it comes to relationships, finding love that last a lifetime is what our hearts long for and we have been created to seek. We believe this message just might be the message needed to make a difference in the lives of many all over the world.

What others are saying:

“It is concise and to the point. It is thought provoking and will make you ask questions of yourself. You will start to examine your own life and relationships. It is well written with insightful information.” Ricky. D., Tennessee

“I lost the printed version of this e-book to my teenage daughter upon bringing it home and she wouldn’t give it back until she read it from cover to cover.” K. C., Georgia

For more on this resource visit notjustanight.com

This brand new e-book is now available at our website.

“Beauty Also Wears Clothes –
101 Reflections On Becoming What Others
LOOK FOR in Life and Relationships, Not Just What They LOOK AT”

This e-book resulted from a couple of different contributing factors: the attitude many have about relationships and the misconception in our culture about beauty.

When putting this e-book together, I really struggled with what to title it. Some of the titles I came up with were, “Beauty Beyond The Body”, “Beauty Is An Inside Job”, “Attraction May Get You In The Game, But Who You Are Gets You To The Championship.” I even came up with a parody, “Beauty Comes From The Inside, But I Can’t See It For All These Half-Naked Bodies.”

What is beauty? What do you ascribe to as beauty?

There are many who spend countless hours, days and even years trying to be externally classified as beautiful, but comparatively, little time ascribing to real beauty that truly reflects the person they are. People like this strive to capture attention by being someone others LOOK AT, but fail to really focus on becoming the person others LOOK FOR in life and relationships.

That’s what this e-book is about. It is written to help people move beyond the focus of just being a physical attraction to someone to a focus on what will also help them keep the one they attract. After all, attraction may get you in the game, but the person you are is what gets you to the championship.

In our society we all know that skin is in, but what I am trying to reveal is that beauty also wears clothes. This is why I titled this e-book, “Beauty Also Wears Clothes - 101 Reflections On Being What Others LOOK FOR in Life and Relationships, Not Just What They LOOK AT.”
